

BCHE

Buckeye Council for History Education Newsletter

Fall 2009

WE'RE NUTS ABOUT HISTORY!

Annual Conference: Great Times with the Great Depression

This year's Annual Conference was a great success. Attendees learned about the Great Depression, and discussed the similarities and differences between that era and current economic conditions.

- More details...

History Webinars Planned

Coming soon, to a computer near you—history webinars! We will highlight Ohio and American history topics and the use of primary sources in these informative presentations.

We have created a short survey to hear what YOU think!

- Help us help you, complete our webinar survey!

Book Discussions on BCHE Books

BCHE books is the place to share the books you find useful in the teaching of history.

Those of you who picked up free books at the BCHE conference, please talk about them here!

- BCHE books website

New State Coordinator for BCHE

We bid a fond farewell to BCHE coordinator Jody Blankenship as he takes up new responsibilities at the Kentucky Historical Society. As we do so, we'd like to introduce you to our new Coordinator: Stacia Kuceyeski

To remove your name from our mailing list, please click here.

The Ohio Historical Society and the Ohio Humanities Council, with funds from the National Endowment for the Humanities We the People program, provide support for the Buckeye Council for History Education.

